Wallpaper.com's interactive floor plans get you inside all the best new houses

Visit Wallpaper.com this month to take an interactive tour of three houses with entertaining in their DNA. From an ambitious private home on Singapore's Sentosa Island – dubbed 'Asia's favourite playground' – to a rectilinear residence in the UK, with open-plan spaces opening onto bucolic views, these houses are designed with hosting in mind. The third in the trio – a self-contained retreat on a remote Norwegian island – is a model for entertaining on a more modest scale, being perfectly formed for a weekend escape with friends. Tour the blueprints using our groundbreaking interactive floor plans on Wallpaper.com. ✨
